EXPEDITION SALE

Welcome

TO THE AUGUST EDITION OF BLUE HORIZONS

In this edition of Blue Horizons we're ready and waiting to whisk you away to some truly exceptional, and sometimes very remote, corners of the world. A dose of the South Pacific is so very good for the soul, and you can go there in ultra-luxury with Regent on pages 16-17. Jane Archer recounts her delightful experience on the same voyage on page 15.

Moving steadily further eastwards we land on possibly some of the most remote, and certainly best protected, islands on Earth; it is of course the Galápagos. HX (Hurtigruten Expeditions) are offering an incredible low single supplement on page 28 - that's an all-inclusive voyage on a small ship, and free two night hotel stay in Quito. There's some great fares for twin bookings as well. If we take a swing northwards, and turn the page to 30, you might be tempted by the fabled Northwest Passage. I really think the itinerary speaks for itself on this one.

Completing our circumnavigation of the globe lands us back in Europe with Princess Cruises, who are offering incredible low deposits from only £50^{pp} for a limited time only! Find a selection of itineraries featuring this unmissable offer on pages 04-05.

Happy Cruising!

YOUR WORLD VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

+ IDYLIC BORA BORA

As you approach this French Polynesian island, you may genuinely think your eyes are deceiving you. You'll wonder how brilliant shades of turquoise, sapphire and indigo can all co-exist to form such a luscious lagoon, matched only in its beauty by the blindingly white ring of sand and majestic mountain peaks at its centre. Formed from the remnants of an extinct volcano, Bora Bora appears to be of another world. Bora Bora's perfect panoramas are further enhanced by pretty sand-edged motu (islets) and rainforest-covered ridges, while its fabulous coral reef is a joy to explore.

+ BLISSFUL BALI

Beautiful Bali is everything you imagine it will be; humbling temples, tranquil lakes, traditional villages, idyllic sands and thriving paddy fields. A relatively small island within expansive Indonesia, its big personality makes it a popular draw for religious pilgrims, peace-seeking travellers and all manner of beach lovers. Make sure you enjoy a traditional welcome dance before you jump in a taxi to see its abundant sights.

+ AWE-INSPIRING SYDNEY

Sydney is home to a plethora of iconic attractions, including the vertiginous Harbour Bridge and masterpiece of 20th century architecture, the Opera House. Close by are the breath-taking Blue Mountains, a range of craggy sandstone cliffs and caves, encased in native bushland, and the Aboriginals seasonal home and ceremonial place. Just a stone's throw away from the Sydney Opera House is the Royal Botanic Garden. Covering a sizeable 74 acres the Royal Botanic Garden is a beautiful showcase of Australia's native flora and fauna.

Tales of the South Pacific

Jane Archer is one of the UK's leading cruise journalists and cruise expert for the Daily Telegraph. She has been sharing her experiences with Blue Horizons' readers for the past 18 years.

We've all been there. Helping out children decide what to do when they finish school. So when my daughter announced she was going to go to Australia after her A levels to become a dive instructor, her dad and I were thrilled. She didn't like our ideas but it didn't matter. She had a plan and was going off to live the dream (which she did and is still doing). She got the diving bug on a cruise with me in the paradise islands of French Polynesia. Sunny skies, mountainous rainforests, sandy beaches gently lapped by turquoise waters; that was the picture that greeted us every day as we visited Raiatea, Bora Bora, Moorea on a cruise from Papeete.

While she was under water admiring colourful coral teeming with equally colourful tropical fish, I was on top of it enjoying the sheer beauty of the islands; together we dipped into history and culture, visiting the remains of marae (the ancient Polynesians' sacred places), watching local dance shows and learning about life in the islands before the French arrived in the mid-1700s. To this day they are still very Gallic, with baguettes in the market, French the official language and Euros accepted in the shops.

Into this wonderland comes Regent Seven Seas Cruises, which is not only following in our footsteps on a voyage around the Society Islands in March 2026, but heading on through the South Pacific to Auckland.

What an incredible journey it promises to be – 17 nights living the life of luxury on Seven Seas Navigator and enjoying exciting days ashore in the islands we visited, and also Pago Pago in American Samoa, Apia in Samoa, Suva and Lautoka in Fiji, and the Bay of Islands in New Zealand. There's an overnight in Bora Bora, several relaxing days at sea and a whole day in Auckland before disembarking.

If the thought of a cruise in the South Pacific doesn't quite sell it, all the things Regent includes in its fares – so much that even after a fortnight on board, you can disembark with a nil bill – definitely will.

Drinks, speciality restaurants, tips, Wi-Fi, laundry; they are all covered, which makes it great value and budgeting so easy. Splash out on the line's new Ultimate All-Inclusive Fares and Regent will add in return flights as well as UK and overseas transfers.

Did I mention shore excursions? Regent includes those as well, not just one at each port but lots to choose from every day. Whether you fancy kayaking or snorkelling, learning about exotic fruits, flowers or plants, seeing sharks and sting rays from the comfort of a glass-bottomed boat or learning to cook Samoan-style, you can and it won't cost a penny extra.

You can have a lazy day on a moto (small coral islands on the reefs that surround each of the Society Islands), see where the 1840 Treaty of Waitangi that handed New Zealand over to Britain was signed or dive into local colour and cuisine on a DIY tour of the local town.

After so many days hopping around islands that count their populations in the thousands and life is unhurried, arriving in big city Auckland, the capital of New Zealand, will be a bit of a shock. Wow! All those cars, traffic jams, high-rise buildings and exciting things to do.

Like visiting caves lit by glow-worms, seeing penguins and sharks at the city's aquarium, going wine-tasting in local vineyards or doing the cultural bit with trips to maritime and Maori museums.

If you're feeling really brave you can take the lift up the Sky Tower, harness up and get a bird's eye view of the city from an outside walkway around the edge of the building, 328 metres high (that's taller than the Eiffel Tower). Needless to say, a head for heights is a must!

YOUR WILDLIFE WATCHLIST

A cruise is an excellent gateway to so many places where truly extraordinary creatures live, including wildlife hotspots such as the Galápagos Islands and the Amazon river. Whilst some creatures might prove elusive, there are usually several species that re easier to find, especially with the help of a knowledgeable local guide. Although sometimes just stepping off the ship is enough, and you'll find yourself surrounded by curious critters. Here are some of our favourites to watch out for...

THE AMAZON

PINK RIVER DOLPHIN

The Amazon river dolphin, also known as the pink river dolphin, lives only in freshwater. It is found throughout much of the Amazon, swimming through flooded forests during high water seasons. Amazon folklore suggests the mystical ability of the Amazon river dolphin to morph into a handsome man who seduces young village women before leaving them to return to the river (the underwater world). Another legend says that if you swim alone in the Amazon River, you could be carried away by an Amazon river dolphin to "Encante," a magical underwater city.

MACAWS

The largest of all parrot species, at least 17 different species of macaws live in the Central and South American rainforests, with many calling the Amazon their home. Macaws can be particularly noisy creatures, filling the canopy with their calls. Living for up to 60 years in the wild makes macaws some of the longest-lived birds on Earth, and can mimic human speech to an uncanny level.

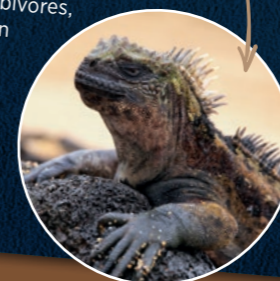

EXPLORE THE AMAZON WITH OCEANIA CRUISES ON PAGES 32-33

THE GALÁPAGOS

MARINE IGUANA

Found only in the Galápagos Islands, these iconic iguanas are distinguishable by the white "wigs" of salt expelled from glands near their noses. They look fierce, but are actually gentle herbivores, surviving exclusively on underwater algae and seaweed. Their short snouts and razor-sharp teeth help them scrape algae off rocks.

GALÁPAGOS SEA LION

The cute Galápagos Sea Lion is the most abundant marine mammal in the Archipelago and is often seen sleeping on the beaches or swimming close to shore. Their streamlined bodies make them very efficient swimmers and hunters, especially of sardines. If you're lucky, you may get the chance to witness young pups chasing each other along the sand.

BLUE-FOOTED BOOBY

Blue-footed boobies are thought to take their name from the Spanish word "bobo", meaning "stupid", the term suited these clumsy and ungraceful creatures. During mating rituals, male boobies show off their blue feet with a high-stepped strut to prospective females that they want to partner with. The bluer the feet, the more attractive the mate.

YOUR INCREDIBLE VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, USA

Explore this laid-back surfer town that enjoys more than 300 days of sunshine each year. Hike the Torrey Pines State Natural Reserve to get a glimpse of whale migrations, go sailing in the bay and, of course, surf the famous swells of Del Mar, Oceanside and La Jolla. A visit to San Diego wouldn't be complete without taking in its award-winning museums and zoos, before exploring its many diverse neighbourhoods full of restaurants, bars, and small boutiques.

PAPEETE, FRENCH POLYNESIA

Brilliant blue lagoons, proud jagged peaks, coconut groves and a hint of gardenia in the air. Everything you've ever imagined about this island is true. An enchanting place, to say the least, it's little wonder Tahiti is a muse to so many. Herman Melville and Paul Gauguin certainly found some inspiration here. And Papeete, the island's very cosmopolitan city, has its fair share. So before you immerse yourself in Tahiti's earthy delights, make sure you visit Papeete's vibrant waterfront and colourful market, brimming with everything from fresh fruit to artisan treasures. You'll find it, well, picture perfect.

YOUR SIGNATURE EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS

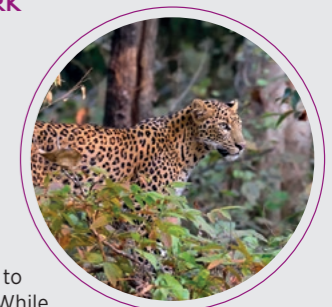

TAJ MAHAL AT SUNSET

One of the New Seven Wonders of the World, the Taj Mahal is ubiquitously recognised as one of the world's greatest landmarks and finest examples of Mughal architecture. Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to admire Emperor Shah Jahan's creation at sunset. The close-up detail is as exquisite as the overall architectural design, with semi-precious stones and beautiful patterns adorning the marble surface.

RANTHAMBORE NATIONAL PARK & TIGER SAFARI

Centred around the impressive 10th century Ranthambore Fort, Ranthambore National Park is scattered with old mosques, temples and hunting pavilions. The highlight of your visit will undoubtedly be the moment that you set eyes upon one of the regal Bengal tigers that live in the park – an experience that few get to have, and once had, very few forget. While on your guided safaris, look out for leopards, boars, hyenas, sloth bears and rhesus macaques, too.
